Grand Knight's Message

James Hogan, Grand Knight

Brothers,

As we enter the final month of this fraternal year, let's take a moment to reflect on everything we've accomplished together. If you attended the Grand Knight's Ball (summary on page 5), this may sound familiar:

- 12 Eucharistic Adorations — including our slotted time at 1–2 AM (oof!)
- 12 Rosaries to End Abortion
- Over 30 local activities
- More than $25,000 raised for various charitable causes

That's no small feat—and it wouldn't have been possible without each of you. So take a moment and give yourself a well-earned pat on the back.

But we're not done yet! There's still a lot ahead in this final month. Our Deputy Grand Knight has outlined upcoming events on the next page—be sure to check it out. One of them is a council favorite, so don't miss it!

Last month, I had the honor of attending the State End-of-Year Meeting, where we elected new State Officers. Congratulations to our new State Deputy, Trey Hart! We look forward to hopefully welcoming him to our council during the 2025–2026 fraternal year.

We also participated in Fairfax City's Annual Antique Car Show, hosted by the City of Fairfax Parks and Recreation Department and the Early Ford V-8 Club of America (Northern Virginia Regional Group). Huge thanks to PGK Tim Hogan for leading the charge. Thanks to his coordination—and some perfect weather—we raised over $1,000 for our council. That's news our Treasurer was very happy to hear!

Finally, congratulations to our Knight of the Month, Phil Coletti, and to our Family of the Month, the Hogan Family. Your service and dedication continue to set an inspiring example for us all.

Here's to finishing strong!

Deputy Grand Knight's Report

Patrick "Pat" Murray, Deputy Grand Knight

Brothers,

As we enter the month of June, we remember the Catholic Church dedicates the month to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. This tradition dates back to the 17th century when St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, a French nun, had visions of Jesus Christ revealing His Sacred Heart to her. This devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus became popular and spread throughout the Catholic Church.

The Sacred Heart of Jesus represents the love and compassion that Jesus has for humanity and the feast of the Sacred Heart is celebrated on the Friday after Corpus Christi.

As the Easter Season comes to a close, we also reflect on the Gifts of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. We as Knights of Columbus, in our role as Servants of the Church and providers of Charity to our Community, pray for the graces of the Gifts of the Holy Spirit, Wisdom, Knowledge, Counsel, Fortitude, Understanding, Piety, and Fear of the Lord.

Many thanks to all of the Knights who have contributed in any way to our Council this past year, through service or through simple prayers. We are so fortunate through the Grace of God to have such a strong group of Men dedicated to the ideals of our order, Fraternity, Charity, and Unity.

Special thanks to those who worked at the Antique Car Show in May especially Tim Hogan, we were able to raise much needed funds for our Charitable activities. Also special thanks to Tony Pierno and Mark Woznak for addressing some of the issues with the Hall and contributing many hours of hard work in deep cleaning the kitchen.

We have a few activities in June where we could use your support:

June 4th – Fairfax City Employee Picnic

June 7th – IAM First Friday Holy Hour at St. Leo the Great

June 14th – Rosary to End Abortion – 830AM

June 14th – Family Food Festival – Set up and Clean up 8AM & 245PM

June 22nd – Corpus Christi Procession Marshals

June 24th – Steak Night

Chaplain's Message

Father James Joseph, Council Chaplain

June 1 is a very special day, in that it is my 1st anniversary as a priest! Additionally of course, this year it is the feast of the Ascension. On this day, we remember when our Lord left our visible sight. When He did this, paradoxically, He became not less present to us, but more present. In the beginning, God created things both visible and invisible, as we say in the Creed. Indeed, most of Creation is unseen by us. The choirs of angels, the eternal truths, the moral law, heaven itself, all these things are invisible but nonetheless real.

Many people today are materialists, that is, they disbelieve in immaterial things, things they cannot see. Yet it is so easy to prove they exist! Where, for instance, are the things we know exist, things like truth, goodness, beauty, even numbers and concepts? Can we point to them? They are not visible or able to be located but are still as real as can be. Materialism is a false view of reality. Instead, the Christian must be an idealist in the philosophical sense, that is, one who believes things are real, even if they cannot be seen.

Faith, as the letter to the Hebrews teaches us, is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen (11:1). It involves believing something not because we have seen it, but because we have come to know the Person who told us that it was true. St. Leo the Great insists that faith in God must be a light to the soul, informing us of truths which we could not otherwise know. In a sermon for the Ascension, He writes, For such is the power of great minds, such is the light of truly believing souls, that they put unhesitating faith in what is not seen with the bodily eye; they fix their desires on what is beyond sight. Such fidelity could never be born in our hearts, nor could anyone be justified by faith, if our salvation lay only in what was visible (Sermo 2 de Ascensione 1-4: PL 54,397-399).

Because of this supernatural faith, he says, our Redeemer's visible presence has passed into the sacraments. The seven sacraments! And so, the Church's sacraments are the true presence of Christ among us. Though they are done with visible signs and symbols, they effect an invisible, spiritual reality. Why? Because He promised that they would. And believing that is the essence of faith. May we ever trust in His promises, even when we do not see Him.

Chancellor's Report

Douglas "Doug" Fehrer, Chancellor

Brother Knights:

As we head into summer I want to share a bit of history and some 'fascinating facts' about the KofC, compliments of 'ChurchPop':

The year was 1882 and anti-Catholic sentiment was running high. Catholic immigrants faced hostility and often found themselves in dangerous work conditions which could result in early deaths. So 29-year-old Father Michael McGivney gathered the men of St. Mary's Church in New Haven, Connecticut, to establish a lay organization to unite men of Catholic faith and provide for the families of deceased members. Columbus was chosen as the Knights' namesake because the American public loved the famous Catholic explorer at a time of general antipathy towards Catholics. And although he was a sinner and broken in many ways (like us), today many make him out to be a villain, even though most of their claims are historically inaccurate. Today, with nearly 2 million members worldwide, the Order remains true to its founding principles of Charity, Unity and Fraternity.

Over a recent ten year period the KofC donated more than $1.6 billion (yes, billion!) to countless charitable causes! The Knights have been a huge supporter of the Special Olympics since day one. We also have a long history with Mother Teresa. Upon receiving the Knights' 'Gaudium et Spes' (Joy & Hope) Award she said, "I accept out of sheer gratitude, for they have done so much for our congregation and for our poor."

Our founder, Fr McGivney, is a 'Blessed' and likely will be canonized a Saint. Moreover some notable Knights are already saints: St. Luis Batis, St. Rodrigo Aguilar, St. Miguel de la Mora, St. Pedro de Jesús Maldonado, St. José María Robles and St. Mateo Correa were all martyred during the persecution of Catholics in Mexico in more than 100 years ago. Although not Saints, Babe Ruth, Vince Lombardi, and President John F. Kennedy were all members of the Knights.

Finally, every time you say the words "under God" when reciting the Pledge of Allegiance, you can thank the KofC for that.

In closing, I want to say once again, Many, Many Thanks to all our Brother Knights who have helped and continue to help with our recruiting efforts! - AMDG -

'Salvation does not come about by magic but by grace and faith.' - Pope Leo XIV

Knight of the Month – May.

Phil Coletti has done an outstanding job serving as our Financial Secretary this past year.

He hit the ground running—most notably by bringing our council into the modern age with the implementation of e-payment options.

In recent months, Phil has also worked diligently to clean up our membership roster, focusing especially on members who were in arrears. Thanks to his efforts, we've gone from having over 30 members behind on dues to just a handful.

What an incredible turnaround!

Phil always answers the call when needed. Just this past month, when a brother knight needed to complete his degree, Phil personally accompanied him to St. Ambrose Council to make it happen.

Family of the Month—May.

The Hogan family's commitment to our council spans three generations—and their legacy of service continues to shine. Their dedication has been evident in their leadership, wisdom, and deep love for our Church and community.

PGK Tim Hogan has faithfully coordinated the Grand Knight's Ball for several years at the esteemed Army Navy Country Club. His wife, Priscilla, plays an active role in many council functions and works alongside Tim in planning these special events.

In addition to this, Tim has served as the lead organizer for the Antique Car Show for nearly as long. His enthusiasm and joyful spirit are part of what makes these events so special. This year was no different—the Car Show brought in just over $1,000 for our council! For their unwavering service and vibrant presence in council life, we are proud to honor the Hogan family as our Family of the Month for May. We are truly grateful to have them as part of our fraternal family.

Grand Knights Ball 2025

Thank you to all who came out to the Grand Knights Ball, I am honored to have served as your Grand Knight this year.

These were the awards presented that night:

Blessed McGivney Award: Rev. Fr. James Joseph

Outstanding Young Man and Women of the year: Sean Healy and Mary Hardwick

Knight of the Year: Mark Woznak

Family of the Year: The Cameron Family

We had very brief messages from our Incoming and Outgoing State Deputies, Bob Jones and Trey Hart respectively, on the phenomenal year we had and will have. Our District Deputy summarized what our State Deputies said and urged us to get over the hurdle for recruitment by attaining our goal of 15 new knights. We are only 5 away. FIVE. So if you know of an individual who is interested in joining our council, please reach out to our Chancellor, see info on pg. 7.
